My dear Sir:

I have your favor of 24 inst. as also the Buckle & Juniper berries <sup>intended</sup> for Jas. Payson, who I am sorry to inform you died this day. You are probably aware that he <sup>of which he died</sup> had been troubled with the complaint for some years prior to the war.

I am glad to say that the worms are doing no injury worth mentioning at present.

I rec'd a notice letter from Mr. Wood, to day merely acknowledging the receipt of mine. He also wrote Mr. Crow, which I hope is an instruction to have the house cleaned off.

My Appointment as Justice of the Peace was <sup>is at present pleasant situation</sup> came to hand to day. I shall go up to St. J. as soon as I can conveniently leave home, which trip I shall have to make in a stiff. If I can see Mr. Crow before leaving home I will ascertain what instruction he has if any respecting the house.

I am your old servt

Wm. E. Davis
